BUILDING

ON A RICH HERITAGE

From your contemporary apartment, the echoes of Norwich's historic past surround you: from the first Anglo-Saxon settlement, to the street names harking back to Viking invasions. The city's history is also written on the skyline for all to see, from the proud cathedral spire to the imposing Castle Keep.

BARRE GATE

AND THE CITY WALLS

Barre Gate, also known as Pockthorpe Gate, was built in 1338 and protected the city for hundreds of years. Now standing in the heart of your new neighbourhood are the original medieval city walls, one of the remaining fragments of the 14th century flint defences. Before parts of the city walls were demolished in the 18th century, they were the longest circuit of barricades in Britain, eclipsing even London's - testament to Norwich's historic wealth.

Norwich's rivers played a huge part in its rich history, including transporting Caen stone from France in the 12th century to construct the cathedral

Enjoy the peace of the River Wensum, named from the Anglo-Saxon word for winding. Follow the thread of this beautiful waterway through the centre of Norwich.

The riverside walk is peaceful, traffic-free, and offers you a uniquely idyllic journey across to the train station, or into the centre of Norwich.

The Wensum brims with wildlife. Peek behind the weeping willows to discover otters, swans, kingfishers, and maybe even a seal who's travelled in from the coast for a freshwater snack! With such thriving natural wonders, it's no surprise that the Wensum is the most protected river in Europe, as both a Site of Special Scientific Interest, and a Special Area of Conservation.

Why not experience a new kind of riverside pint with Pub and Paddle, where you kayak to a well earned drink, or pop across Jarrold's Bridge to reach Norwich's oldest pub, the Adam & Eve and take a sip where monks used to drink.

Head out for a gig, play, or comedy show, and then, to round the evening off end the night with a drink or two at one of Norwich's independent pubs or bars.
